| Chorus                   | 2 C C2 C2 AIII AIII   | Z AIIIZ          | AIII AIIIZ   | AIIIZ F DIII  | וווע ד וווע | DIII C |
|--------------------------|-----------------------|------------------|--------------|---------------|-------------|--------|
|                          | C/E                   | Am               | С            | F             |             |        |
| I can't wait to s        | see Jesus' face and   | d run run        | run into H   | lis arms      |             |        |
| C C                      | C/E Am                |                  | С            | F             |             |        |
| I can't wait to h        | ear Jesus say com     | ne come          | come you     | re home       |             |        |
| Am C                     | F                     |                  |              |               |             |        |
| Welcome welco            | ome home              |                  |              |               |             |        |
| Verse 1                  |                       |                  |              |               |             |        |
| C                        |                       | F                |              |               |             |        |
| We'll dance in           | the river of Jordan   | skip on F | streets of   | gold          |             |        |
| Finally leaving C | time and pain be      | hind             |              |               |             |        |
| Join in with lov         | ed ones singing pr    | aises to         | the Lamb     |               |             |        |
|                          | joy is all we'll know | ı                |              |               |             |        |
| Bridge 1                 | oy lo all woll know   |                  |              |               |             |        |
| G                        | Am                    | F                | ı            |               | С           |        |
| Bowing down v            | we'll lay our crowns  | and wo           | rship the L  | ion and the L | .amb        |        |
| G                        | Am                    | I                | F            | G             |             |        |
| Just to hear the         | e King of Kings say   | / "well do       | one" "wel    | I done"       |             |        |
| Chorus                   |                       |                  |              |               |             |        |
| Bridge 2                 |                       |                  |              |               |             |        |
| G                        | Am                    | F                | С            |               |             |        |
| I don't know wh          | hen Jesus will retui  | rn, it cou       | ld be toda   | у             |             |        |
| G                        | Am                    | F                | G            |               |             |        |
| All I know is I lo       | ove Him more with     | every bi         | reath I take | Э             |             |        |
| Chorus                   |                       |                  |              |               |             |        |
| Chorus                   |                       |                  |              |               |             |        |
| Ending                   |                       |                  |              |               |             |        |
| Am                       | C F                   |                  |              |               |             |        |
| When Jesus sa            | ays welcome home      | )                |              |               |             |        |